RESULTS & IMPACT

This project wishes to:

1) Address the issues of inclusion and integration, by researching policies, strategies and initiatives that currently exist.

2) Develop young participants' digital skills, mainly their ability to create impactful messages and utilize video editing tools to advocate.

3) Develop awareness raising campaigns showcasing the issues and the difficulties of integration and inclusion

4) Perform an outdoor survey to discuss the levels of integration and inclusion of the local community. Evaluate the results and learn how to reach conclusions.

5) Develop awareness and promote the values of respect, tolerance, and unity in diversity in an attempt to develop Inclusive Societies.

Bridge the gap and allow for interaction among local youth and young people with migrant background.

PRACTICAL ARRANGEMENTS

About Chania

Chania: (Greek: Χανιά, [xaˈɲa]) is the second largest city of Crete and the capital of the Chania regional unit and it lies along the north coast of the island. The city has an airport and the port of Souda, the largest natural port of the Mediterranean.

The Venetian port provides pleasant promenades through picturesque streets and attracts many visitors throughout the year. This districts of the city outside the walls still preserve their Venetian nobility. Narrow passages surrounded by elegant houses built in different historical periods offer visitors pleasant routes to discover.

ACCOMMODATION

Camping Chania is situated in a local beauty spot known as Ag. Apostoli. There are four small sandy beaches all within walking distance, the closest one being 100m away and the most far 300m away from the camping.

The participants will be accommodated in the “Camping Chania”, in fully equipped bungalows that host 4 participants. The activities will be held there as well.

You may find out more details about the camping in its website

TRAVELLING

TRAVEL DAYS

The participants need to arrive at Chania on Sunday 19 May 2024 and depart on Sunday 26 May 2024.

TRAINING

The activities of the Project will be held from Monday 20 May to Saturday 25 May 2024.

ITINERARY

The ticket costs will be refunded to the participant as soon as you arrive at your country and send us all the boarding passes. If the ticket cost exceeds the maximum travel budget (see above) the participant should cover the difference.

P.S.: For any question you may have you may ask the bus drivers, other passengers or people who work at the airport in order to help you out.

NUTRITION

As far as your nutrition is concerned, it is 100% covered by the Programme. Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be served in the camping.

In Greece you do as Greeks do, so exceptionally traditional Greek food is on the menu

The participants that have any specific nutrition needs (e.g. allergies, intolerance) need to notify their leader in order to make the necessary arrangements

INSURANCE

All participants that are from the sending organizations EU Member-States are obligated to have their European Health Card.

They must provide it to their sending organization upon their selection. If they fail to do so they will not be eligible for participation.

INTERCULTURAL EVENTS

A special evening will be dedicated in presenting each participating country to the other participants.

Please prepare a short presentation about your country focused on culture and bring along traditional music, food or anything else you would like to show and share with the other participants. Each delegation will have 30 minutes in total.

WEATHER & USEFUL CONTACTS

The average temperature, during the days of the Project in Crete, it will be between 14oC and 23oC degrees, while the weather is also quite changing from sunny days to lots of rain. You can check the weather forecast before your arrival.

Do not forget to take work jackets for the evenings as well as your swimming suit as a marvelous beach will be waiting for us if the weather allows us to visit!
